GERMAN ENVOYS UNABLE TO SIGN

Semi-Official Statement Declares
Government Will Reject
Peace Conditions.

POLICY IS UNCHANGED

Reports That Lack of Unity Exists in Cabinet Also Denied and People
Are Declared to Be Backing
Up Present Officials.

Berlin, May 17.—Veiled insinuations in the Pan-German press that the Ebert-Scheidemann government intends to sign the Allied peace terms, notwithstanding their severe provisions, have resulted in the semi-official announcement that these insinuations strike a false note and that the government is fully united in its intentions to carry out its recently stated policy of refusing to sign the compact.

Reports that lack of unity exists in the cabinet also are denied. The announcement declares that there is complete unity between the Versailles plenipotentiaries and Berlin and that the government knows itself to be one with the overwhelming majority of the people.

Continuing, the announcement says that the government will not be forced into a hasty "yes" or a hasty basic "no" and that it is determined to abide by its original stand on the unreasonableness and impossibility of fulfilling the present peace terms. The announcement concluded by saying that the government, however, would attempt to negotiate an understanding which would culminate in a peace of justice.

It is stated that Matthias Erzberger, who has been accused of differing with the cabinet is completely in accord with its views.

Foe Prepares New Note.
Another note from the German peace plenipotentiaries said to deal with the question of Alsace-Lorraine is in course of preparation by the Germans, and proved the feature in Peace conference circles.

The negotiations with the Austrian delegation at St. Germain are expected to begin the middle of next week. The council of foreign ministers is continuing its labors on the details of the Austrian peace treaty connected with the question of new frontiers. The treaty, it is understood, will not deal with the disposition of Dalmatia, Istria or Fiume, merely calling for Austrian renunciation of rights to these territories.

MARK DECLINING IN VALUE

Rate of 12.64 to American Dollar Has Been Fixed.

New York, May 17.—Depreciation of the German marks makes it possible to convert one dollar into more than three times as many marks as before the war, it was pointed out here in an announcement by the American Relief Administration, subsequent to receipt of a message from Director General Hoover stating that a rate of 12.64 German marks per dollar has been fixed with the German finance commission, for transferring money to individuals in Germany for relief purposes.

FORMAL RUSSIAN PROTEST

Objection Made to Recognizing Independence of Finland.

Washington, May 17.—Formal protest against recognition of the independence of Finland has been made to the powers by the Russian political conference at Paris. The Russian embassy at the Omak government announced here.

The British and the United States government on May 5 recognized the Finnish government. Finland formerly was a part of Russia.

AMERICA MAY BE MEDIATOR

Solution of Fiume Problem Seen With U. S. as Arbitrator.

Paris, May 17.—Negotiations pending for the adjustment of the Adriatic controversy contemplates a direct settlement between Italy and Jugoslavia through American mediation. By this plan the Austrian treaty would not specify the disposition to be made of Dalmatia, Istria or Fiume beyond detaching them from Austria.

SERBS AND CROATIANS BATTLE

Serious Fighting Reported at Agram, Croatian Capital.

London, May 17.—Serious fighting between Serbians and Croats at Agram, the Croatian capital, is reported in a Vienna dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. Many of the combatants are said to have been killed.

Wilson Thanks Trainmen.

Washington, May 17.—President Wilson has cabled his thanks to the triennial convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, which is being held in Columbus, Ohio, for expressions of loyalty.

WALTER E. EDGE

New Jersey Governor Resigns
to Take Seat in Senate.

Governor Walter E. Edge has resigned as governor of New Jersey to take his seat as the state's junior United States senator. William N. Runyon, president of the senate, was sworn in as acting governor.

THREE PLANES START

American Fliers Are on Their Way Across the Atlantic.

Wireless Station at Bar Harbor, Me.,
Picks Up Messages at Distance of Over 1,000 Miles.

Washington, May 17.—Cryptic radiograms from the seaplane division on its way to Europe, picked out of the air by the naval radio station at Bar Harbor, Maine, indicated that the NC-1, NC-3 and NC-4 were in the vicinity of the destroyer Thatcher, station No. 9, nearly 500 miles from Trepassey Bay.

The three machines left Trepassey a few minutes after 6 o'clock p. m. and were officially reported as passing station ship No. 6, 300 miles out, a little more than 4 hours later. The next indication of their progress was the intercepted messages reported by Bar Harbor.

The Bar Harbor station set a new record in catching the signals of the planes at a distance of more than 1,000 miles. The NC-1 was calling the Thatcher in the message the Maine station overheard.

Navy officials assumed the Thatcher was still ahead of the group of airplanes which had passed other destroyers in the long line closely bunched and all making speed in excess of the 60 mile rate they had been expected to maintain.

COVER EVERY CONTINGENCY

Navy Orders Given Ships Along Atlantic Flying Route.

Washington, May 17.—Coincident with the start from Trepassey Bay, N. F., of the American navy seaplanes, in an effort to make the first trans-Atlantic air passage, the Navy department made public an order, issued April 15, which governs the action of every aircraft and naval vessel connected with the long flight and provides against almost every possible emergency which may arise during the voyage. The order contains more than 2,000 words and is one of the most comprehensive ever issued by the department.

BILL AIMED AT RADICALS

Measure Will Be Introduced by Senator Overman.

Washington, May 17.—Senator Overman, of North Carolina, chairman of the Senate committee which has been investigating the spread of lawless propaganda in the United States, announced that a bill designed to reach persons advocating overthrow of the government by force will be introduced in the extra session of Congress. The committee will meet soon to complete its report.

DEADLOCK IN LABOR WAR

Strike at Winnipeg Shows No Sign of Settlement.

Winnipeg, May 17.—Deadlock between union labor in Winnipeg and leading industrial employers who refused to recognize the unions, continued and although it was known that the general strike was receiving the attention of federal, provincial and local officials, there were no signs of any approach toward a settlement.

Four Held for Big Sugar Theft.

New York, May 17.—Theft of between $75,000 and $80,000 worth of sugar in the last five weeks from the United States naval supply base in Brooklyn led to the arrest of four men, charged with grand larceny.

General Strike At Winnipeg Continues

(By United Press)

Winnipeg, May 17.—"The future is dark and the situation is precarious," declared Mayor Gray today when the third day of the general strike found the city more completely tied up than ever. The strikers showed no indication of relenting. Mayor Gray wired the Ottawa government that Labor Minister Senator Robertson must come to Winnipeg at once. The bread lines and milk lines are growing. There is no actual suffering, except among infants requiring fresh milk. Strike committees were caring for all urgencies as rapidly as possible.

GREEKS TAKE SMYRNA

Five U. S. War Vessels in Allied
Fleet at Asiatic Seaport.

Americans Take Part in Naval Concentration for Purpose of Enforcing Mandate Against Turks.

Athens, May 17.—Greek forces have landed at Smyrna, the news being received here with great enthusiasm.

Paris, May 17.—In connection with the mandate to Greece to administer the city of Smyrna, an extensive Allied naval concentration has been begun there.

The United States battleship Arizona and four United States cruisers have arrived at Smyrna, according to an Athens dispatch.

Dream of Centuries Realized.
Athens, May 17.—Occupation of a portion of the coast of Asia Minor by Greece is regarded here as a realization of Greece's dream of five centuries.

Permission for the occupation was given by the peace conference on request of Premier Eleutheros Venizelos, following official confirmation that the Turks were stirring up trouble in Asia Minor.

An entire division of Greek troops was landed at Smyrna and occupied considerable territory on either side, including Alvali, 100 miles to the northward, and Vouria, 40 miles to the southward.

The troopships, which sailed from Cavalla, were escorted by two battleships and four cruisers. One of the battleships was the Kilkis (formerly the American battleship Idaho, sold to Greece in 1914).

The landing was attended by considerable ceremony as the day was one of Greece's principal holidays, known as Roses day. The occupied territory is populated almost wholly by Greeks.

U. S. MANDATE OVER ALBANIA

Request Reported to Have Met "Sympathetic Response" in Paris.

Paris, May 17.—The request of the Albanians for the United States to accept a mandatory over that country is reported to have met with a "sympathetic response." The Albanians contend that awarding of the port of Valona to Italy would give the Italians absolute domination of the Adriatic, regardless of the disposition of Fiume.

Germany's Inclusion in League of Nations Probable

BY LOWELL MELLETT,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Germany's inclusion in the league of nations appeared visibly nearer today when it became known that the allied leaders were considering her membership in the international labor bureau. The bureau is an integral part of the league. The peace treaty specifically provides that members of the bureau shall be the present members of the league of nations, and those who become members later. Although the Germans will not be taken into the bureau immediately because of the hostile sentiment in some allied countries, it is believed in many quarters certain she will be included in both the bureau and the league very soon.

No Additional Word From Seaplanes

(By United Press)

Washington, May 17, (1:45 P. M.) The navy department had received no word from the navy trans-Atlantic flyers since 11 o'clock. At that time the NC-4 was reported to have arrived at Horta in the Azores, 150 miles from Ponta Del Gada. The NC-1 passed station ship 19 and the NC-3 reported herself off the course somewhere between station ships 17 and 18. Little apprehension was felt.

68th Division Ordered Home

(By United Press)

Washington, May 17.—All units of the 68th national army division have been assigned to early convoy the war department announced.

Officers Await Decision.

Washington, May 17.—In accordance with an opinion rendered by Attorney General Palmer holding it to be the "lawful duty" of the internal revenue bureau to collect a tax on malt beverages with an alcohol content in "excess of that permitted by law," issuance of revenue stamps to cover beer taxes will be continued and no attempt made to prohibit the manufacture of beer pending a decision by the Federal court of New York as to what percentage of alcohol renders beer intoxicating.

Van Cleave Heads Stove Association.

New York, May 17.—Lee W. Van Cleave, St. Louis, was elected president of the National Association of Stove Manufacturers at its forty-eighth annual meeting. Walter M. Jones, Richmond, Va., was chosen treasurer.

Foe Prelate Appeals to Pope.

Rome, May 17.—Cardinal Hartmann, according to a dispatch from Cologne, has sent a formal request to Pope Benedict to "save the German people from threatening ruin."

BANK ROBBERY FOILED

Montreal Police Arrest Three Heavily Armed Men.

Frustrate Daring Plan to Hold Up
Two Institutions for One Million Dollars.

Montreal, May 17.—Three men, heavily armed, were arrested in a motor car near two Montreal banks and what the police say was intended to be a daylight million dollar holdup of the two financial institutions was frustrated.

The money had been deposited as part of the payroll of the Canadian Pacific railway employees.

Fifteen detectives and six policemen, all heavily armed, took the men into custody near their automobile in Ontario street east, where the Home bank and the Bank of Hochelaga are located. In the car were coils of rope and canvas bags, and the police said it apparently was the intention to tie the bank clerks.

SCHAFER PLEADS GUILTY

Bank Fraud Admitted When Accused
Confesses to Larceny.

Minneapolis, May 17.—William H. Schafer pleaded guilty to grand larceny in the first degree thus bringing his trial to an end.

The case was one of 18 indictments returned against him in connection with the accusations of the state that he had promoted "a gigantic scheme of fraud and deception to loot his banks." Schafer, by the purchase last July of a controlling interest in the Mortgage Security company of Minneapolis, had obtained with it a string of 14 small state banks in various small towns adjacent to the Twin Cities.

Schafer's counsel, John F. Dahl of Minneapolis and Clarence S. Darrow of Chicago, asked the clemency of the court for Schafer, following the changing of his plea to guilty and County Attorney Nash did not oppose the request. Schafer will be sentenced May 31.

PLANNING TO ENFORCE ACT

Revenue Men Will Report Violations of Wartime Law.

Washington, May 17.—Formulation of the government's policy on enforcement of the July 1 prohibition act has been practically finished. The policy includes:

Use of Internal Revenue officers in reporting violations, collection of the manufacturers' liquor tax on all alcoholic beverages of more than 5 per cent alcoholic content, even though manufactured in violation of the law.

ASSERTS GERMANS WILL SIGN

Hun Secretary Says "Your Knees Are on Our Stomach."

Versailles, May 17.—A distinct impression among some of the subordinate members of the German mission that the Germans will sign the peace treaty is reflected in the remark of one of the secretaries who is quoted as saying: "What else can we do but sign? We are on the ground, your knees are on our stomachs and your thumbs in our eyes."

Further Credit for Britain, Belgium.

Washington, May 17.—The Treasury announced establishment of credits in favor of Great Britain for $50,000,000, making a total for Great Britain of $4,316,000,000, and in favor of Belgium of $1,390,000, making Belgium's total $340,500,000. Total credits to all Allies now are $5,379,219,000.

Women Workers Go Overseas.

New York, May 17.—Mrs. Walter G. Hooke of Bronxville, N. Y., sailed for France on the steamship Mongolia in command of third unit of overseas women workers sent abroad by the National Catholic War Council.

WORLD'S PEACE IS HELD FAR OFF

Those Claiming to Know Declare
Dangers Still Lurk Beneath Surface.

HUN NOTE REJECTED

Peremptory Answer to Objections for Disposition of Rhine Left Bank and Saar Valley Reported Given.

Paris, May 17.—In the opinion of persons in close touch with the general situation, grave dangers are lurking beneath the surface of the peace settlement. This rests in the fact that everybody is too ready to fight.

Against the theory that the European nations are too exhausted to fight further it is pointed out that history shows all countries in the past have been more warlike at the end of a struggle than after an era of peace. After the Civil war, for instance, the United States defied both France and Great Britain.

From Belgium, in fact, from everywhere, have come criticisms of the peace treaty. One of the knottiest problems of all—disposition of Fiume—is yet to be settled.

Italians Play New Tactics.

The Italians are playing an entirely new game. Instead of pushing their claims they apparently are co-operating to the utmost in other work. They have not shown any inclination to abandon their claims, but they are not pushing the subject.

Considering the fact the Italian army is not demobilized and that the Italians now occupy all the territory they are claiming, the question arises as to who would put the Italians out, providing they would go so far as to sign the peace treaties and then refuse to evacuate the territories they claim are rightfully theirs. Such a task eventually probably would fall to the League of Nations, it is believed.

American Influence.

Through American influence it is believed an arrangement will be made whereby the Ukrainians and Poles will cease fighting. But this is only one of the numerous minor wars that are being waged in Europe. Establishment of peace between the Poles and Ukrainians would mean that General Haller's army, recently transported from France to Poland through Germany, would be available in helping keep back the bolsheviks. This would merely be stopping one war to assist in carrying on another.

Hun Rhine Note Rejected.

Paris, May 16.—A peremptory answer to the German note registering objections to the treaty arrangements for the left bank of the Rhine and the Saar valley has been drafted by the special commission on territorial affairs, presided over by Andre Tardieu, it was reported today.

The German counterproposal regarding the Saar basin agrees to surrender the coal mines, but insists upon retention of political jurisdiction over the region.

CHECKS CORN SPECULATION

Julius H. Barnes Sends Notice to Chicago Board of Trade.

New York, May 17.—Julius H. Barnes, Federal wheat director, has formally notified L. F. Gates, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, that the exchange should reevaluate the rule limiting the amount of open trades in corn for any one interest or individual to 200,000 bushels. His suggestion was designed to prevent undue speculation.

If the Chicago Board complies with this suggestion as is expected, Mr. Herbert Hoover, director general of the Food administration that further regulation "may not be necessary," he said.

TO RECOVER INCOME TAXES

Government Files Suit Against Commercial Cable Company.

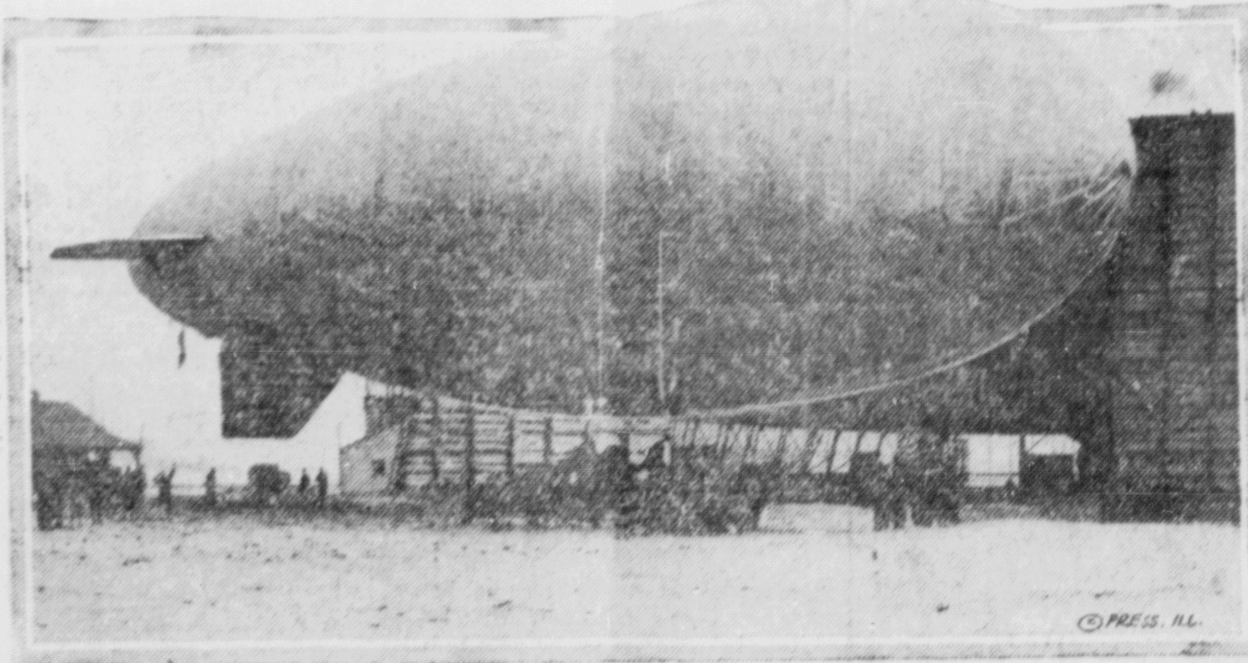

New York, May 17.—The United States government has filed suit in supreme court against the Commercial Cable company to recover income taxes alleged to be due and unpaid for the years 1909 to 1915, inclusive.

The complaint alleges that returns filed by the Commercial company in 1909 to 1915 were "incorrect, misleading and false, and failed to set forth the net taxable income of the corporation for those years."

TO AUTHORIZE BOND ISSUE

Railway Executives Advocate an Appeal to Congress.

New York, May 17.—Authorization by Congress of a single issue of equipment trust obligations for financing hundreds of millions of dollars worth of rolling stock purchased by the government for the railroads, was advocated by the Association of Railway Executives, after a conference here. It also was decided that a thorough revision of the act to regulate commerce was necessary.

Not as a competitor of the navy's NC planes but to try out the possibilities of dirigibles in sustained flight the Navy Department ordered the C-5 to fly from Montauk Point, Long Island, to St. John's, Newfoundland. Navy men in Washington believe the C-5 will demonstrate that she can cross the ocean. Under favorable conditions she had a cruising radius of about 2,000 miles.

Royal Neighbors Dance

The Royal Neighbors dance was a great success and all enjoyed a fine time at the dance.

Raphael.

The modern form of the name of Raphael, one of the greatest painters of the renaissance, is Raffaello, and his family name Santi is also written Sanzio. According to some writers, he was born March 29, 1483, while others give that date as one day earlier while still another group contend that the inscription on his tomb, which is April 6, is the correct day of his nativity. Should this be so, a most remarkable coincidence appears in the fact that he is said to have been born on Good Friday and died April 6, 1520, which also fell on Good Friday.

MAY TRY TO PASS
AN EXCLUSION BILL

CONGRESS IS ALMOST SURE TO ADOPT SOME IMMIGRATION LEGISLATION SOON.

IT'S A TICKLISH SUBJECT

Northern Members Not So Free to Act as the Southerners—Bomb Plot Increases the Chances for a Drastic Measure.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Congress at its extra session will undertake immigration legislation, which at all times has been charged with dynamite, but which this time will be charged with TNT.

Immigration legislation scares every politician north of the Mason and Dixon line. Most southern representatives in congress can vote for total exclusion of all would-be immigrants and never stir more than a ripple of opposition among their constituents. Northern representatives cannot do this except in the cases of a few men who represent districts which to a considerable extent are constituted—barring the negro—like the constituents of the South. Republicans and Democrats in congress have voted on many occasions against certain restrictive legislation of which at heart they were in favor. They voted as they did to save themselves at the polls.

When labor began to demand more drastic immigration legislation, congressmen paid heed and voted in considerable measure for the reading and writing restriction which finally became a law after the bill containing it had been vetoed three times. President Taft and President Wilson, men of opposite parties, did the vetoing, but the measure finally was passed by the required two-thirds majority over the present president's "I forbid."

May Offer Bill Like Burnett's.
Representative Burnett, Democrat, of Alabama, in the last congress was chairman of the house committee on immigration. He proposed that no foreigner, with the exception of a certain few commercial classes and others, be permitted to come to this country for five years. It is probable that a measure of this kind will be introduced at the extra session of congress, but the chances are that it will not have Republican sanction. It will come in as an offset bill to be presented by some member who is willing to take a longer stride than his colleagues.

Recent anarchistic manifestations seem to have moved the Republican majority to a willingness to go farther in restrictive legislation than three weeks ago it was thought possible. It is impossible to say just what form the legislation will take, but the feeling is that while no time limit of absolute exclusion will be set, something will be done to prevent the entry into this country of men who are perfectly able to pass the reading and writing test, but who could not pass any test of loyalty to any existing form of government. The desire will be to keep out the anarchists and the potential anarchists, and it is admitted that the literacy test is of little avail with these classes.

Fear to Hurt the Party.

At the coming session of congress the effort will be to keep out all immigration for a brief time, and then when the bars are let down the attempt will be to see that no bomber or knife man works his way in. Admittedly the problem is a hard one, and also admittedly there is fear among the Republicans that action will hurt the dominant party unless it is taken with due precaution. There is a presidential election next year.

Societies of men of foreign birth in the United States and of men born in this country but of immediate foreign extraction will resent any kind of legislation which will keep men of their own race off the soil of the United States. It is a pretty hard thing for a law-abiding hitherto hyphenated American to admit that men from the country from which he sprang are not all like himself, capable of being made into first-class citizens of a republic.

Representative Burnett, who put in the five-year exclusion bill, received a bomb the other day through the mails. So did ex-Senator Hardwick of Georgia, who was active in immigration legislation. The fact that these two men were recipients of bombs will do something to make more determined the men of the coming congress who will have immigration matters in charge. Bombings and attempted bombings always work that way. They tend to bring about the things which the bomb senders and bomb throwers seek to prevent.

Legislation aimed at the radicals now in this country and at those abroad who seek entry into this country will be of twice the strength that it would have been if the "reds" had not made their bombs and attempted to put them to use.

How to Clean Ivory.

Ivory is best cleaned by rubbing with a cloth (or, for carvings, with a soft brush) dampened with alcohol. When yellowed it may be bleached by wetting with water or alcohol and placing in direct sunlight, under glass. The process must be repeated until the desired degree of whiteness is obtained.

SEVEN YEARS OF CRIME NETS $500

Daring Burglar Decides to Reform After He Leaves Prison.

Long Island City, N. Y.—After having spent seven years as a burglar and all-around robber and gaining less than $500 in all of that time, eighteen-year-old Stephen Leyser told Supreme Justice Humphrey in Long Island City, N. Y., that he had decided to take up another career as soon as he had the opportunity. He pleaded guilty of having stolen an overcoat from a tailor shop and was sentenced to the state reformatory.

"I am going to keep a watch on your record there," said the judge, "and if Sentenced to the State Reformatory, you behave yourself I will help you start on a new career when you get out."

"I'll be as good as any boy in the institution," he replied.

Leyser was known to the police as "Yellow Spot." Every time he would commit a burglary he would leave behind a card bearing that name. He often left notes denouncing the police for not being able to catch criminals. In one of these left in the tailor shop he said they would be able to catch thieves if they were not so much interested in moving picture shows while on duty.

The police had sought "Yellow Spot" for months, but they were astounded when Leyser admitted he was the criminal. Despite his youth he has spent several years in prisons and institutions.

A lady who lived alone had taken into her service a young girl from the country. One day both mistress and maid were going out, and in such circumstances it was usual for the key of the back door to be hidden in the garden. The hiding place had been pointed out to the girl, and when she went out she was careful to secrete the key in the place indicated, but she played on the door a piece of paper on which she had written, "Shall be back soon. Key under the flower pot on the window ledge."

Residents of the Capital City Are Especially Fond of Nature Study and Are Given the Best of Opportunities.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—In the days between sessions of congress the country has an opportunity to learn something of the doings of officials in Washington who are neither cabinet officers, senators nor representatives in congress. There is a great body of working scientists in the town, the result of whose labors are seen everywhere in the land, and in many places in the world far from the United States of America.

The work of the American scientists of the various departments of government has been recognized as of the highest value by all the scientific bodies of the world. The good that these men have done along all sorts of lines is beyond measure, and yet, like other educators, they are paid for the most part niggardly salaries.

The men who provide means for the saving of life, for the cultivation of two stalks of wheat where only one grew before, for the charting of currents in the ocean to make commerce safe, for the safeguarding of lives in the mines of the country, and for other high services get as their main reward the consciousness of work well done, and precious little else.

Their Unselfish Devotion.

There are in the United States several institutions and foundations which are devoted to scientific pursuits, to investigations along life-saving lines, and in the field of general world beneficence. These institutions have been well endowed and they have at their command many scientists of the highest reputation. Yet it is a fact that although the pecuniary reward is higher in the field which these institutions have opened, many scientists who for years have been connected with the government work in Washington have refused to leave their labors simply because they believe that here they can do better work for science and humanity.

Take the biological survey of the department of agriculture. There are men in this work, devoted largely to investigation and research which will aid the farmers of the land and also conserve the beneficial wild life, who gave up well-paying positions in private life to take poorly paid positions because they thought, and thought truly, that under the government they could be of great service to the world.

There is a pleasant and only partially scientific side for the work of these savants in the city of Washington. Many of them are interested in practical means of teaching adult residents and school children of Washington the beauties and the secrets of nature. There probably is more religion in nature study in the city of Washington among the inhabitants thereof than in any other city of like size in the land, and in any other city of much greater size, too, for that matter.

The valley of the Potomac is rich in flowers, birds and the smaller mammals. There is opportunity here also for the geologist, and, through the naval observatory in the Georgetown university observatory, for the astronomer. The meteorologist here has opportunity to indulge the bent of his inclination.

Citizens Out Studying Nature.

In this spring season parties of residents of the city of Washington, led by men connected with the scientific branches of the government, constantly are in the field, studying floral or animal life of the region, or it may be the rocks of the Great Falls of the Potomac, or again it may be studying the skies when the sun has gone down behind the near-by mountains.

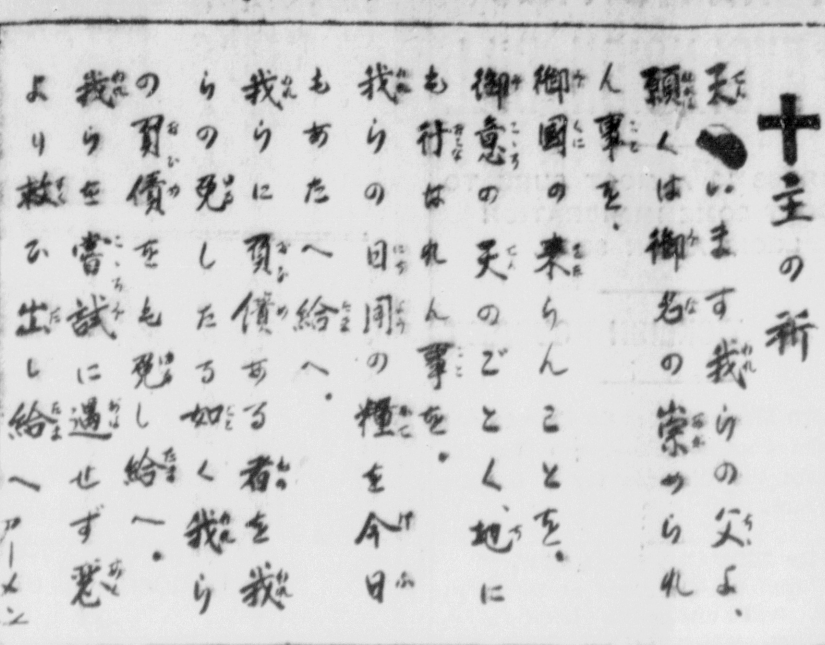

A little club of scientists in Washington owns an island in the Potomac river about eight miles above the city. This island contains about thirteen acres of land. It has some great trees on it, plenty of smaller tree growth and a great abundance of wild flower life. In addition to this the scientists have attracted to the island all the resident species of birds, which, finding that they are given food and perfect protection, throng to the place in increasing numbers year by year.

Into the island have been brought all the Potomac country species of wild flowers. These have taken root, flourished, and in their season they blossomed. The result is that the little island contains specimens of virtually all the flowering plants of the fields, the woods, the marshes and the valleys of this river country.

The island is of rock formation, and in its center it rises to a height of about 100 feet above the river. On the top of the rock is a little cabin, well built and well protected in all kinds of weather. Here the scientists go on days when labor is suspended in the departments, and here they enjoy this after their nature-loving manner.

Government ownership of factories in Russia resulted in a deficit of $300,000,000 in 1918.

You Can Repeat It, but Can You Read It?

You can repeat it, but can you read it? This is a photographic reproduction of a copy of the Lord's Prayer which hangs in a large frame in the Methodist Episcopal mission school at Kobe, Japan. Almost every Japanese can read the Kana—the small light figures to the right of the black Chinese characters. Within three years 1,200,000 copies of the Bible were sold in Japan, in which there are only 150,000 Protestant Christians. More schools will be established and more teachers, missions, doctors and nurses will be sent to Japan and Corea out of the $105,000,000 the centenary movement of the Methodist Episcopal church is making a drive for now.

SPLENDID WORK OF THE ARMY CHAPLAIN

HIS DEVOTION AND HEROISM NOT SURPASSED BY THOSE OF THE FIGHTING MEN.

DECORATIONS WON BY MANY

Protestant, Catholic and Jewish Ministers Largely Ignored Religious Differences, All Striving Nobly to Achieve the Same Results.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Incoming records of the war department show that the chaplains, and there were hundreds of them, of the United States army, made good on the fighting line and in fact in every place to which their duty called them.

It should go almost without saying that all our American soldiers made good. Cowardice was unknown. Good conduct prevailed, and heroism was the order of every battle.

The chaplains had great part in the campaigns which were conducted so heroically. It is believed to be the intention eventually to have a history compiled of the work of the chaplains of the twenty-odd denominations which contributed ministers and priests to the service of their country.

The use of names in an article like this would be invidious because only a few of the deeds of valor performed by the chaplains could be told within a limited space. Distinguished Service medals given by the Americans, crosses of war by the French and Belgians, and equivalent decorations given by the British are worn today by many of the still khaki-clad ministers of religion who served in the United States army. Jew and Gentile have won their honors in the chaplain ranks as Jew and Gentile won them in the combatant ranks.

Heroic Work in Battle.

A score of chaplains, and the number probably will prove to be larger when the records are all won decorations for going to the extreme front under terrible fire, there to minister to the dying and to encourage the unwounded living to a continuance of high duty. Some of the chaplains in the service were men pretty well advanced in years. They stood the rigors as well as did the younger men in the ranks. The chaplains of nearly all the regiments are prime favorites with the men. Hundreds of thousands of young Americans formerly without close church affiliations, it is known, have been led to assume them because of the examples set on the battlefield by the teachers of religion.

The officials of the war department in Washington fully realize the service which the chaplains performed. Day by day these ministers of the Gospel in their uniforms report to the war department, either for orders or to secure their release from the service, now that their duty is done and they feel that they must return to the duty of parish and of congregation.

They are a modest lot, these chaplains. They say nothing of their deeds, nor even of their work, except that they like the service and that they hope they did their duty in that state of life in which it pleased Uncle Sam to call them. Methodist, Baptist, Roman Catholic, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Congregational, the Jewish faith, and in fact virtually all of the religions and churches having representation in America, were served at the front by the upholders of their doctrines and the preachers of their faith. These men, war department officials know, and the country should know, are going back to their work in civil life strengthened by their experiences with men of all kinds, classes and conditions, and inspired by their labors in the valley of the shadow of death.

All Striving to Same End.

There is a striking story told in France. It may not be true, but it ought to be true. The story is that a soldier, a Catholic, was wounded into death and was lying on the battlefield barely conscious. A representative of the Jewish faith was close to him. The rabbi crawled through the falling shells to the dying man's side. The wounded soldier made an effort to reach the little crucifix which was within his blouse. The rabbi unbuttoned the blouse, took out the crucifix, held it before the soldier's eyes and then as the Catholic boy died the rabbi held the crucifix to his lips that he might kiss it as his spirit fled.

Jewish, Protestant and Catholic chaplains worked together in France. There was absolutely no friction. They forgot differences and realized that each man was striving to do good as he saw his duty and that all were striving to the same end, the salvation of souls, the relief from suffering, and a pointing to the path of duty for all men alike.

On the ship on which I returned from France there was a Roman Catholic chaplain, a fine man and a veteran of the Spanish-American war who had with him a letter of commendation for his services at the front from a bishop of the Episcopal church who held the rank of colonel. The Catholic chaplain was proud of this commendation from his Protestant brother.

The war, despite its horrors, did a good many fine things, but none finer than an erasing, for the time being at any rate, of thousands of controversial lines.

DEMAND NOW IS FOR MUSIC

Freak Attire and Mannerisms No Longer Attract Streams of Dollars to the Concert Hall.

It looks as if the old order of musicians will soon be moss covered. The tously headed individual in freak attire does not find his camouflaged personality a passport to capacity houses. If the dead composers had messages for modern humanity the messages must be interpreted by modern men and modern women.

The musician of today looks like a smart business or professional man rather than an idle dreamer, observes the Philadelphia Record. He is as good a customer as the barber has. Short cropped hair is supplanting the shaggy locks of former days. The schoolboy's Windsor tie and low collar have given way to the neat four in hand and regular business man's collar. The Buffalo Bill chaplain is ousted by the conventional federal. Old mannerisms which serve no useful purpose are cast off.

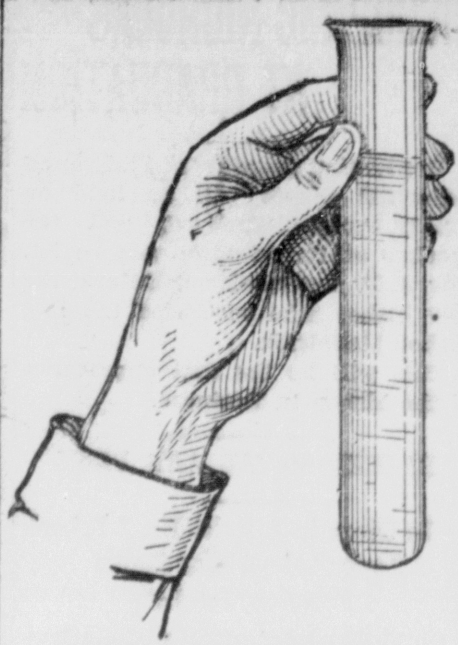

The modern musician is a good mixer. He wants to know his public first hand, and he enters into the general life of the community instead of acting the recluse. By mingling he has learned that people now want music, not gesticulations nor dress. Concert goers are more concerned about what they hear than what they see. An artist's reputation for freakishness off the stage does not offset poor execution on the stage. The music-loving public has developed to the point where sham and pretense are useless. Nothing but the ability to produce good music can get past.

Censor Hun Telephone Talks.

At first, all use of telephones was forbidden to the inhabitants of occupied towns (of Germany), but this rule has been relaxed also. In the French zone the natives are allowed telephone calls within their own city; while in Coblenz the Americans allow this and also permit the use of five "junk lines" from the occupied territory into Germany proper. Thus a German in Coblenz may talk directly to a German in Berlin.

Except in cases of extreme personal necessity, all such calls are supposed to be confined to the transaction of important business, and of course American army censors "listen in" on every call. This privilege was given to the Germans of Coblenz because it was found that the sudden and complete interruption of contact between the two banks of the Rhine caused a great deal of inconvenience and suffering. HEALTH TALK

BY DR. VALENTINE MOTT.

All the blood in the body goes thru the kidneys within a few minutes. Therefore the kidneys are very important in health or disease because they filter out of the blood most of the waste (poisonous) substances and the blood then flows on to ward the heart thru the kidney vein. What the kidney takes out of the blood forms urine. So it is very important to have the water tested by a chemist, at least once a year. I would suggest that everybody send a sample to Dr. Fene's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y., and receive back a thorough chemical and microscopic test, free of charge.

The kidneys and bladder suffer from the wear and tear, and we get chronic inflammation sometimes indicated by backache, painful voiding of water—dull, heavy feelings. Perhaps the urine acid is stored up in the system in excessive amount, and consequently when the waste salts are deposited in muscles and joints one suffers from lumbago (pain in back), rheumatic pains, gout, etc.

Nothing will act so nicely as "Auric" (anti-uric acid)—a recent discovery of Dr. Pierce's which can be had at all drug stores. "Auric" washes away the poisons, cleanses the bladder and kidneys—removing them entirely—consequently one is soon cured of lumbago, rheumatism, gout, and the body is put into a clean, healthy state.

NEW ERA REPORT GIVEN APPROVAL

General Assembly of Presbyterian Church Defers Action On Inter-Church Plan.

RIGHT TO HOLD OFFICE

Larger Place in Leadership for Women Is Recommended in the Expansion Program Presented to the Commissioners.

St. Louis, May 17.—Discussion of whether the Presbyterian church in the United States should enter the inter-church world movement, which seeks to ally all Protestantism, delayed for several hours adoption of the new era report by the 131st general assembly because the report favored the movement.

Paragraphs of the report pertaining to the movement finally were deleted and the report adopted for five years with the understanding that the question would be brought before the assembly later for action.

The report, as adopted, urges that arrangements be made for the care of returning soldiers and sailors and that positions be found for returning ministers who served in the war.

Larger Place for Women. The report advocates that a greater brotherhood between employer and employee as a means of eradicating Bolshevism and I. W. W. be brought about and also advocates sex equality in church matters.

A larger place in church leadership for women was recommended in the new era expansion program presented to the commissioners, which provided that women be given the right to hold offices in the church council, the board of trustees and all committees of the church.

The successful activities of women in connection with their own missionary work, and the new recognition of their place in society, the report declared, "confront the church not merely with the duty, but with the privilege of affording them a larger sphere for church leadership."

Launch Big Program.

Recommendations that the church launch upon a new five-year expansion program for the spread of Christianity, and plans for reorganization upon a budget system were outlined in the new era program. Expenditures of $25,000,000 for individual church budgets, covering equipment and operation, including $1,000,000 for increasing pastors' salaries, and $13,000,000 for the new era budget, were reported by the committee as a part of the 1919-1920 program. A total of 90 per cent of the $13,000,000 expansion fund already has been raised, the committee report said, with the entire amount practically assured.

Starting Something.

The household was comparatively quiet when the ten-year-old son looked up from the last page of a recent issue of the News and inquired of both parents sitting near: "What's funny about this here 'Abe Martin'?" "There's never anything 't' eat in a home where th' wife is on an allowance." "The joke, my son," his father replied, "is that instead of spending the allowance for food, the wife blows it in for clubs, clothes, candy and confections." "No, son," said the mother, "the fact is that the allowance is not large enough to provide a hotel menu, though the men seem to think it is. And that is no joke, either."—Indianapolis News.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Best Today

It was a delighted audience that followed the fortunes of "The Lone Wolf" in Thomas H. Ince's tremendous Paramount-Artcraft special photoplay, "The False Faces," which had its premier at the Best theatre yesterday and will be shown again tonight. Henry B. Walthall, as Michael Lanyard, "The Lone Wolf," who has reformed and becomes an Allied intelligence officer with a secret mission to revenge himself upon a Hun who has brought his wife and child to death, was excellent and his portrayal was most artistic.

At the Best Monday

The age-old truism that "as ye reap so ye sow" is often demonstrated on the screen and stage but rarely with the compelling effect found in Pauline Frederick's new Goldwyn picture, "One Week of Life," which comes to the Best theatre, beginning Monday. In every respect this engrossing drama by Cosmo Hamilton is worthy of the larger talents of the "new" Pauline Frederick revealed in "The Woman on the Index." She is vivid, dramatic, appealing, and her infinite variety is given full scope in assuming two characters throughout "One Week of Life."

WHEN BEATTY PUT TO SEA

Like Drake of Old, Commander of British Fleet Left the Tennis Court for Battle.

Scarcely had I arrived at Aberdeen when I learned that some unusual report had come in from the sea. Lieutenant Hunter writes in the World's Work. The admiral had arrived before me and continued to talk on his open wire for some moments. The fleet at once dropped from four to two and one-half hours' notice for steam and shortly afterward was making preparation for departure at a moment's notice. When Sir David came out to the tennis court he suggested that I need not answer the recall signal from my ship as expected, but return with him. "I don't believe they intend to shove off without me," he added. We started our game, but over the wire the admiral had thrown the scent into the kennels and already the leaders of that great pack, so apparently listless a short hour before, were bristling and snarling on the new-found trail. With a pleasant smile Admiral Beatty jerked his racket toward the Fifth. From the court which overlooks the entrance could be seen the first of the screening groups as they slipped quietly to sea. Division followed division, as destroyers, light cruisers and scouts passed on to their appointed tasks. The grand fleet was in motion. In motion at the direction of its great commander in chief, who, while actually commanding his fleet by wire, was also my partner in a game of tennis. Messages came to him too often for his liking, as far as the game was concerned. Several he dispatched in reply, but it soon became too hot, forcing departure for a sterner game.

ROAD PROJECTS IN CASS COUNTY

Ambitious Program Calls for Bonding County $410,000 and Federal Aid of $205,000

ALSO BENTON NEAR BRAINERD

Brainerd - Pillager - Motley - Staples Highway to be Improved, Also Pillager-Pine River

Cass county has adopted an ambitious road program for the next three years. This embraces the recent bonding of the county for $410,000 and the securing of $205,000 federal aid. Of the latter $90,000 is represented by funds furnished by the Forestry Department. The county commissioners levied a road and bridge fund of $45,000 for the next two years.

Of the total funds of $660,000 secured, $83,000 will be spent on the Brainerd-Pillager-Motley-Staples road and also $20,000 on the road connecting Pillager and Pine River.

Both the above roads are much used by Brainerd people, especially the last named which connects with the new bridges just finished over the north end of Gull lake.

Crow Wing county is working on four and a quarter miles of the Brainerd-Pillager road in this county which connects with Cass county continuation of the road.

Another road to be improved in Cass county is the Ballclub-Cass Lake road. The road which runs from the Pike Bay-Narrows bridge to Ballclub village is to be built 24 feet wide and graveled every bit of the way, making the best road in that section of the country.

The reason for graveled the road to the width of 24 feet was in contemplation of the Babcock amendment, after the passage of which the road will be paved 18 feet wide. This road is part of the Theodore Roosevelt transcontinental highway from Portland, Maine, to Portland, Oregon.

$20,000 will be spent on the county road from Cass Lake to the Beltrami county line.

ROLL OF HONOR

Among the Rainbow Division men returning are Buckie M. Hunter, Corp. Leonard Swanson and Private Henry Howard. They all saw nine months service and were in fierce fighting at the front. Corp. Swanson was slightly wounded in one engagement. All relatives were at St. Paul and saw them in the big parade. Private McKinley Howard expected to go across but is still at Brest.

Do you feel old before your time? Is your back bent and stiff? Do you suffer urinary disorders? Don't despair—profit by Brainerd experience. Brainerd people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's a Brainerd resident's statement.

P. M. Bislar, machinist, 412 S. Twelfth St., says: "I had occasional attacks of kidney trouble for some years. They always began with a lameness across my back and developed into a constant dull ache. My kidneys would then act irregularly and the secretions contained a heavy sediment. A physician here said I could use nothing better than Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured some at Dunn's Drug Store. I am now entirely cured." (Statement given on September 1, 1908.)

OVER NINE YEARS LATER, or on November 5, 1917, Mr. Bislar said: "I have every bit as much confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills as when I gave my former endorsement. Sometimes when I have caught cold, I have noticed a slight return of the trouble and I have always used Doan's Kidney Pills and they never fail to give me prompt relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bislar had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Office of Store Greatly Improved—One of Anderson's Sons Lately Returned From France

A change in business circles is the sale of the C. H. Schwabe dry cleaning business and the building occupied by Louis Anderson of Sioux City, Iowa.

Mr. Anderson and family, embracing wife and four children, are occupying the flats on the second floor. Mr. Anderson bought the business primarily to give employment to his sons, one of whom lately returned from war service in France.

The office of the establishment has been improved with linoleum and draperies supplied by the D. M. Clark & Co. store. Other changes have been made tending to make the place bright and attractive.

The machinery in use is of modern patterns and all work entrusted to the establishment is turned out promptly and satisfactorily.

ELKS WELCOME RETURNED SOLDIERS

Gathering Pays Honors to Men Who Had Been in Their Country's Service in War

ADDRESSES, SONGS, LUNCHEON

Joint Picnic of Brainerd, St. Cloud and Little Falls Lodges Receives Further Impetus

Honors were paid returned Elks soldiers at the homecoming celebration at the Elks lodge on Thursday evening. Brainerd lodge has 33 stars in its service flag and its investments in Liberty Bonds total $3,200 or $100 for each man sent to the colors. So far not a gold star has been noted.

Addresses were made by Exalted Ruler Fred L. Sanborn, Col. C. D. Johnson, H. P. Dunn, Judge J. T. Sanborn, S. F. Alderman, A. C. Mraz and Sergt. Wm. V. Turcotte.

Private Mraz and Sergt. Turcotte told of experiences in the service. The luncheon served later was under the direction of Wm. J. Garvey and was most satisfactory.

Exalted Ruler Sanborn reported on progress attained in the plan of a joint picnic of Brainerd, St. Cloud, and Little Falls lodges. Little Falls had taken up the matter with generous enthusiasm. On motion a committee was ordered appointed from Brainerd lodge to confer with St. Cloud on Friday evening.

A vote of thanks was given those who had assisted the Elks in decorating Gardner auditorium for the annual dance, contributing so largely to its success. The secretary was instructed to transmit the thanks of the lodge to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carlson, Miss Alice Smith, Mrs. Walter F. Kuntz, Miss Alma Kaupp.

The report on the dance made by the General Chairman B. E. Dunham, showed it had resulted in a surplus and the result was greeted with applause and the committee thanked for its efforts.

Attention was called to the state convention of the Elks June 20 and 21 in St. Paul. Brainerd lodge expects to have quite a delegation present.

Irreversible Sand.

One of the most interesting and remarkable of the many regions for the observation of sand dunes lies between Bordeaux and Bayonne, in Gascony. The sea here throws every year upon the beach, along a line of 100 miles in length, some 5,000,000 cubic yards of sand. The prevailing westerly winds continue packing up the surface particles from the westward slope, where they are again deposited, and the entire ridge by this means alone moves gradually inland. In the course of years there has thus been formed a complex system of dunes, all approximately parallel with the coast and with one another and of all altitudes up to 220 feet. These are marching steadily toward at a rate of from three to six feet a year, whole villages having sometimes been torn down to prevent burial and rebuilt at a distance.

A Tune.

Music never grows old. What was familiar yesterday, like the songs of the lark, is the same today, tomorrow. Whistled in the field, hummed in the workshop, rippling from the guitar, leaping from the keys of the piano, heard from year to year until every note wakens some memory, who can follow the course or measure the influence of one single, simple tune. . . . No corner of the world where it may not go and make its influence felt. The little black-eyed troubadour plays it to the throng passing along the city streets. It is sung by the boatman on the Mississippi and the miner in the mountain gorges of the West. And away on the banks of the Seine, the Rhine and the Arno it floats, doubly welcome and dearer than ever to the wanderer.—Charles F. Searle.

We Don't Do It Now.

Mrs. Deacon Philander, who had been in bed a week suffering from a nervous breakdown due to overwork in cleaning her house, suddenly rose up in bed and screamed: "I must get up! Let me up!" She was restrained by force. She sobbed and said: "There is some dust on the mantle behind the clock and it has been there a week. I meant to clean it up, but forget it until this moment." If the physicians can find an anti-housework toxin they offer hopes that Mrs. Philander will eventually recover some of her former health. Mr. Philander has made arrangements to have her guarded night and day to keep her from committing suicide by useless housework.

Too Cool for Comfort.

The coldest place on earth inhabited by man is Verkhoyansk, above the arctic circle, in northeastern Siberia. The thermometer there drops to 90 degrees below zero in January, but sometimes rises to 86 degrees above zero in the shade in July, dropping, however, to the freezing point on the warmest summer night.

Active Age Proves Real Quality

Like warriors grown gray in harness, and white-haired employees still on the job, a scuffed and scarred set of Silvertown Cords on an ancient car somehow best tells the story of the matchless service of these patrician tires.

The graceful, well-groomed elegance, with which they when new adorn smart cars, may be shabby; their tough tread worn smooth; but their distinction remains.

Once a Silvertown always a Silvertown. You know them, old or new, for aristocrats.

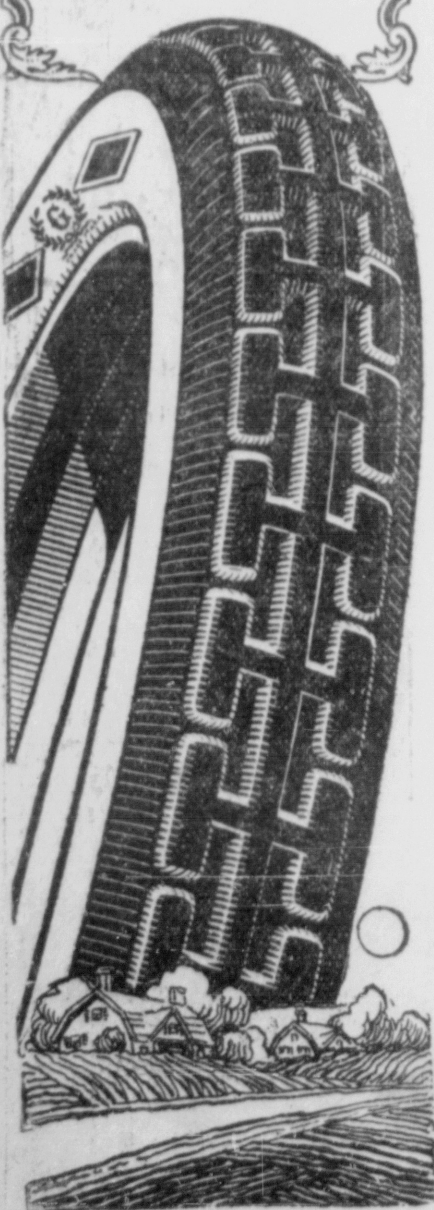

In their age, you read the history of their wonderful endurance; their useful career of miles and miles of road roughing.

You always get the long mileage of a ripe old age to round out the youthful beauty of the tires with the Twin Red Diamonds on the sidewall.

BRAINERD IN 1st MATCH GAME HERE

Locals Confident of Winning from the Range Town, Much Interest on Range in Game

MANY CARS TO MAKE TRIP

Swedie Erickson has Trained His Colts to the Last Minute of Prime Perfection

All the baseball world in Brainerd and vicinity is agog over the coming match game between Crosby and Brainerd billed at the Koering grounds Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Brainerd has practiced steadily throughout the week and Friday night had a practice game with a junior team of Brainerd and defeated them. Brainerd's battery is working fine and sure to give good results. Fred C. Cook put the locals through their paces during the week and expects all to give a good account of themselves.

A tentative line-up for Brainerd gives these names: Fuller, catcher; Hannan, pitcher; Cook, first base; Benda, second base; Carlson, shortstop; Stallman and Pickering on 3rd. The outer garden will be selected from Bush, Gaskill, Belfy, Sheffo and Ziebell. Molstad will be used as pitcher or utility man. Templeton may be out and if he does he will be on third. Gaskill, one of the best base-runners in the team and a good hitter, shines alike as catcher and outer garden man.

Bush's Arm Sore

Bush pitched an inning two days ago when Boston defeated Chicago 6 to 5. Bush has been out of the game until then, because of a sore arm, having caught cold in the ligaments. He is now gradually recovering and will be used more and more.

Old Business Houses.

Business houses established in the eighteenth century are plentiful in London. You will find the advertisement of a famous firm of fireworks makers in the London Gazette of Charles II's day. Older still is the business which is passed on the way to Fleet street, and which bears "Established 1690" over its door. But these are eclipsed by the Whitechapel bell foundry which is engaged on the renovation of Westminster abbey chimneys, and boasts continuous working since 1570. If this is not the record, who holds it?

DISPATCH BUILDING., SIXTH STREET, SOUTH

Honor Neded Missionary.

Among the relics preserved on the island of Tahiti is the burial place of the Rev. Henry Nott, one of the first, and considered the greatest, of the missionaries who went to the South seas in the early days, says the Detroit News. The mission sent out from England to Tahiti in 1796 was the first undertaken by the London Missionary society after its formation. Henry Nott was of the company who landed from the ship Duff, commanded by Capt. James Wilson at Matavai bay, Tahiti, in 1797. From that time until his death in 1844 he labored without ceasing in the island. It was he who first translated the Scriptures directly from the original Hebrew and Greek texts into the Tahitian language.

In Praise of the Arab Steed.

This polyphonic prose about the Arab horse is raked up by George Jennison, E. the Manchester Guardian: "Allah made the horse before man, and Allah said: 'I have called thee horse: I have created thee Arab; I have bestowed upon thee the color kummitte. I have attached good fortune to the hair that falls between thy eyes. Thou shalt be the lord of all other animals. Men shall follow thee wheresoever thou goest. Good for pursuit as for flight, thou shalt fly without wings. Upon thy back shall riches repose, and through thy means shall wealth come.' And he signed the horse with the ghora in the middle of the forehead—the white star of glory and of good fortune."
